Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations, §1.56, duty to disclose information material to patentability (in part) provides, in part, that each individual associated with the filing and prosecution of a patent application has a duty of candor and good faith in dealing with the Office, which includes a duty to disclose to the Office all information known to that individual to be material to patentability as defined in this section. The duty to disclose information exists with respect to each pending claim until the claim is cancelled or withdrawn from consideration, or the application becomes abandoned.

Under this section, information is material to patentability when it is not cumulative to information already of record or being made of record in the application, and

- It establishes, by itself or in combination with other information, a prima facie case of unpatentability of a (1)
- (2) It refutes, or is inconsistent with, a position the applicant takes in:
  - (i) (ii) Opposing an argument of unpatentability relied on by the Office, or
  - Asserting an argument of patentability.
